Diana Henderson is an expert in workers' compensation with over 30 years of experience in developing and evaluating claim standards, practices and procedures, as well as reserving and reserving policies. Gregg Gillis makes music that makes you think. To answer the question addressed, two working groups, one made of the staff of a University clinic, the other one composed of practising general internists, have discussed the assets and weaknesses of a University service of Internal Medicine for postgraduate training. Worked in the round, this pattern is a blast to work up and a hoot to show off. Full
